

Please delete the Abstract and substitute the following Abstract.

Abstract

A process for producing multicoat paint systems comprising applying to substrates including unprimed substrates, substrates coated with an uncured primer or substrates coated with a cured primer, one first color and/or effect coat, one second color and/or effect coat, and one transparent coat, and jointly curing wet films of these coatings and also where appropriate the uncured primer.